

Hi Kids ~

I'm back for some December fun until Santa gets here! How was your summer?

I wanted to let you in on a little secret this year – Santa doesn't actually make all the toys. Some toys are taken back to the workshop to be fixed up and then Santa brings them to sweet little boys and girls who don't have many toys of their own. Santa loves to see kids sharing toys – it may even score extra points and keep you on the nice list!

But I can't just take your old toys (that would be stealing!) so each night if you could pick one toy that you no longer need and place it next to me, I'll take it with me back to the North Pole (but nothing too heavy because it's a long flight!) and we'll fix it up so Santa can deliver it to another child who can get just as much love from it as you did.

Can't wait to see you spread the love!

XO,
